Luxury living of historic proportions comes to the heart of Old City. Developer 806 Capital introduces the Old City Lofts featuring a trio of locales including the Hoopskirt Lofts, Letitia Lofts and the Lofts @ 209. In total, 90 lofts will be renovated and prices will start in the high $200s. The swanky condominiums will feature hardwood floors, brick walls and European kitchens with granite kitchen countertops and stainless steel appliances. The grand lofts range from 500 to an impressive 2,000 square feet, with space-saving innovations for all of the residences. (For example, a power-operated privacy shade at the Lofts @ 209 provides separation between the bedroom and the living space.) Discover how the Old City Lofts will make what was old, new again. Visit OldCityLofts.net to view photos and floor plans, or call 215.LOFT.215 for more information.
